

Dear USF Faculty Colleagues,

In December 2020, the USF Libraries Collection Advisory Group held two information sessions presenting the “Revising Collection Management” process. To ensure that as many faculty as possible are informed about the process, we will be hosting two additional sessions in March to review our on-going process and answer questions. Please note if you attended the December sessions, the information shared in March will be repeated.

All pertinent information concerning our process is available at lib.usf.edu/collections-and-discovery/revising/, and please see Our Compact with Faculty as well. If you are interested in information concerning specific titles, please consult resources under review and/or retained resources. If you have follow-up questions, please contact your library liaison.

Information sessions will be offered March 4th in the morning and March 11th in the afternoon to accommodate schedules. Please register for the session you would like to attend at https://usf.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_cZsgONhVXUKaLTE. Microsoft Teams login information for both sessions are below:
