Dear USF Faculty Colleagues,

In December 2020, and earlier this morning, the USF Libraries Collection Advisory Group held information sessions presenting the “Revisioning Collection Management” process. To ensure that as many faculty as possible are informed about the process, we are hosting an additional session next week to review our on-going process and answer questions. Please note if you attended the December sessions or this morning’s, the information shared next week will be the same.

All pertinent information concerning our process is available at lib.usf.edu/collections-and-discovery/revisioning/, and please see Our Compact with Faculty as well. If you are interested in information concerning specific titles, please consult resources under review and/or retained resources. If you have follow-up questions, please contact your library liaison.

The next information session is March 11th. Please register at https://usf.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_cZsgONhVXUKaLTE. Microsoft Teams login information is below:
